THE STRESS MASTERY PROGRAM

Bring your training, coaching and consulting to a high level of professionalism with the Stress Mastery Program. Associates and Affiliates can access the complete Stress Mastery Program that enables trainers, program facilitators, counselors or health coaches to design and deliver highly effective stress mastery training or coaching programs. The Stress Mastery Program is comprehensive and includes three products:

The SMQ has been certified by the American Institute of Stress (AIS) and has been awarded its Stress Product Award. The SMQ is the starting point of the Stress Mastery Program. All stress mastery training and coaching programs begin with a personal stress "risk" assessment of each person using the SMQ. The SMQ provides each person with a clear understanding of his or her stress and, through training or coaching, how to make changes in behaviors and attitudes that will have a positive impact on stress levels, performance and quality of life. The SMQ is designed around three main areas (Stress Warning Signs, Stress Effect, 11 scientifically developed scales) Learn more about the SMQ . . . SMQ BROCHURE

STRESS MASTERY PROFILE & REPORT

After completing the SMQ a one-page Stress Risk Profile is immediately provided to each person showing their "risk" scores on each of the 11 SMQ scales, from Low to High. In addition, each person is provided with their Stress Mastery Report. This 9-page Report shows their level of stress "risk" on each of the scales. In addition, the Report shows how each answered each of the questions on the scale. This information is vital to developing a plan for stress mastery. Click to see the Report . . . STRESS REPORT

STRESS MASTERY GUIDE & WORKBOOK

Last, in order for participants to better understand their Stress Report and the meaning of each SMQ scale, a copy of the Stress Mastery Guide and Workbook is provided. The Guide (66pp) helps interpret the results of the SMQ and is used interactively with the participants during the course of the training or coaching. The Workbook portion has specific exercises to help trainees or clients gain the knowledge and skills to reduce and master stress. Click to see the STRESS MASTERY GUIDE AND WORKBOOK.

I love the Stress Mastery Guide . . . very comprehensive and is well done. Dr. Petersen’s work is devoted to helping employees in high-stress organizations do more than "cope" with stress. Instead, they are guided to the awareness and tools that allow them to thrive, achieving mastery over stress.
STRESS MASTERY WORKBOOK

The Stress Mastery Workbook helps clients or trainees to go deeper into the meaning and importance of each scale and, also, facilitate the creation of change and personal development. The Workbook has specific exercises to help trainees or clients gain the knowledge and skills of reducing and mastering stress for each of the 11 SMQ Scales. See the Stress Mastery Workbook . . . Workbook

TRAINING & COACHING

Information alone will not necessarily produce change. In the hands of a good trainer, counselor or coach, the feedback provided from the Stress Report, Stress Mastery Guide and Workbook, through experiential training and coaching will facilitate change and personal growth toward stress mastery. In order to assist Associates or Affiliates to deliver high impact stress mastery programs, we provide personal and small group coaching and eLearning programs through live and recorded webinars. Dear Dr. Petersen,

I would like to personally thank you for creating a great stress assessment tool. As an executive coach, trainer, and team developer, I have searched for a good stress assessment tool for use in our programs. Having scoured the internet for over 10 years, we have found your stress risk assessment tool, called the Stress Management Questionnaire (SMQ), to be the best tool for the programs we do with our corporate clients.

We’ve been using your SMQ diagnostic tool since early 2000 as part of our PEAK PERFORMANCE II program. This program focuses on how to improve personal performance through employee engagement. Decreasing stress in the workplace is essential to improving organizational performance.

Thank you for working with us and our clients, as Stressmaster and your Stress Management Questionnaire will remain as an integral part of our program going forward. I sincerely appreciate the fact that you have worked with us to translate the Stressmaster into Spanish for one of our large financial clients in Mexico. Over the next 5 years, they plan to enroll their high potential group into the Peak Performance program as part of their cultural transformation process. They are trying to reach close to 5000 people in a period of 5 years. This is a pretty aggressive target. We are currently rolling out Peak Performance II to all the graduates of our Peak I program. Currently we are targeting 3000-5000 people for Peak I and then Peak II. Thank you for being such a great partner.

Dr. Petersen has developed a comprehensive stress questionnaire that provides users with a comprehensive analysis and report that enables the participant to gain a greater understanding of potential triggers of stress within their lives that can be used to develop an effective stress management action plan to improve their overall health & well being.

PB - Preventative Medicine Professional

Thanks again for making time to share your story about the Stress Master Program - this is really interesting stuff. I finally made time to take the [SMQ] assessment and it gave me an accurate read of my situation. Over the last few years, I learned to identify my stressors and how to keep them in check so I am not doing too badly - but I can improve in a few areas. You are dealing with a topic that is essential to today’s workplace.

Greetings Dr. Petersen,

I took the SMQ, and would be very interested in getting a full report. I love the Guide that comes with completion too! This is all very comprehensive and is well done. Dr. Petersen’s work is devoted to helping employees in high-stress organizations do more than "cope" with stress. Instead, they are guided to the awareness and tools that allow them to thrive, achieving mastery over stress.

Inspired by this message and excited to partner with the promise of Dr. Petersen’s organization, I became a Stressmaster Associate. Dr. Petersen is a wealth of knowledge on the industry, and his Stress Mastery Questionnaire (SMQ) is an essential stress risk assessment tool. With it, I am able to better serve my clients, and, thereby, change the world.

Hi Jim,

I just got finished looking over the materials to the SMQ and I have to say that I am quite impressed. There is a place for this on a global level for sure. At the very least for people in the health care world as a staple instrument... I just wanted you to know that you really did a great job with this. The entire package is brilliant. (Later) I took the SMQ. I am sure that you will not be surprised to know that, I was impressed on first sight.

I would just like to recommend the Stress Management Questionnaire (SMQ) as a key organizational tool to help employers to effectively identify and help manage stress within the workplace.

[From a one day workshop with senior level bank executives by an Associate using the SMQ]

I already received two calls of participants telling me it has had a deep impact on them: they are “determined to leave stress behind” and now they “know how to do it”

Muchas Gracias and best regards! - Carlos

Hi Jim

I really like the workbook, it has a lot of very valuable information. You did a great job! Thanks!

JB - Stressmaster Associate

Hi Jim,

What has consistently been commented on in regard to the SMQ is the participants seeing how their companions rate them, compared to their own self evaluations. Longer-term married couples tend to mirror each other on the graph, while there are often big disparities between self and companion on those in less structured relationships, or less intimate relationships (i.e. siblings, friends, coworkers). Also, many remarked that they did not know they were as affected by stress until seeing the SMQ. I think stress is a badge of honor among some—if you are not stressed, you are not working hard enough. The SMQ allows them to see the importance of balance between work/home and the need for decompression "me" time. I think the SMQ has been a great educational tool in the fact that participants realize that stress is more of an enemy of productivity (professionally and personally) then they had previously believed.

One of the key areas we focus on in our District Manager training is for the participants to not only address their stress, but also help Store Managers & CSRs with stress.

As mentioned, this remains a very popular course. Right now we are projecting about 50 participants this year, but there is a possibility we will offer this as part of a stand-alone program (as opposed to a block of instruction in a 5-day course).

Hello Dr. Petersen,

I just took the assessment and I think it is great! It was simple, didn’t take too long, and easy to understand. I really liked the [Stress Mastery] Guide as well, especially the Contract For Change Section, as many of the clients we work with have difficulty with follow through. I will be trying this assessment with a client next week Wednesday and will also be presenting this to the occupational therapists and social workers. Thank you very much for being prompt and providing trials for us to try to determine the need for the assessment. I will keep you posted! Thank you.

Hey Dr. Petersen,

I have been reading my “HIGHS” (scores on the SMQ) and I thank you for hitting it on the head. My anger, time urgency, tension highs describe me perfectly. I will be using the info taking it to my group counseling sessions for discussion input.

‘I get better insight every time I go through the Report & Guide.’

Dr. Petersen,

I would just like to recommend the Stress Management Questionnaire (SMQ) as a key organizational tool to help employers to effectively identify and help manage stress within the workplace. P.B Wellness Provider - UK

The SMQ is easy to complete and a good tool for engaging individuals, raising awareness of stress/stressors and more comprehensive than for example, giving someone a Homes & Rahe Stress Scale to complete (although that does provide a quick snapshot). I think the SMQ naturally leads people on to wanting to drill-down and learn more about the issues that are flagging-up as medium-high/high stress. I imagine it is also a good tool for bringing corporate clients on board too.

M.K. - UK

Dear Dr James,

First of all thank you so much for the SMQ. I did it just now and it is spot on. It is really good because it shows you in what area of your life you have stress and also how much the stress is. It is not time consuming at all, that is a really big plus. People don’t want to sit for instance an hour or more filling in answers. I can see now why this is really successful :)

Thanks James,

I have been working with an executive team the last two days providing feedback regarding StressMaster and I am loving the practicality and richness of the information. We used it in Namibia for Executive Wellness, and conducted three assessments before meeting the team. The Stressmaster gave us the authoritative stance to go in and present sanitized actual averages for the small team’s stress levels and this clenched the deal.

CPI -Stressmaster Associate South Africa

Hi Jim

After looking at your site extensively I then completed the assessment. I have been looking for some time to find a resource to use with my clients dealing with stress, really like the approach you take.

Rev. Paul Bailey, MA
Stressmaster Associate Canada

Dr. James Peterson developed an assessment called Stress Mastery Questionnaire (SMQ). We’ve used it for nearly 18 years. I love working with [the SMQ] assessment and it is easy to train others to deliver it and it provides such rich data. What Jim has developed is one of the best assessments that I’ve seen out there for helping people understand their stress load and then being able to manage their stress and overcome their stress.

S. R. - SAN

I am one of a small team of Training & Development consultants here at Capita who provide a number of stand-alone courses in addition to our more bespoke consultancy work. One of these courses is Peak Performance Under Pressure - designed to help people to understand a little more of the nature of stress, their stressors, their stress response, and exploring preventative measures and coping mechanisms. The SMQ is used within the context of this course. Delegate feedback has been universally very positive, ranging from the benefit of having one’s self-awareness reinforced, through to some real epiphanies. On a personal note, I have found the SMQ to be a robust, informative tool, based on sound theory and practice. I am definitely an advocate of the Stressmaster philosophy!

JL (UK Consultancy)

The large number of advisors who turned out for the presentations (by you) and the enthusiastic response to the material presented attests to the excellent job you did! (And) we heard nothing but compliments on the programs being conducted for the advisors.

JTN - National Law Enforcement Council

I'm not writing this e-mail on behalf of [The Group] but just as 1 person who attended. I really appreciated your presentation. I thought it was great. I liked that you stayed in a reasonable time frame, that you let us speak (so often our visiting experts really like to hear their own voices and they go on and on and on....) and i just thought you did a great job presenting both yourself and your material. So thanks for doing a professional job.
